

Character description

Writers use descriptive language to help readers imagine the characters in their narratives (stories). They tell readers what the characters look like, and what the characters think and feel. They also tell readers how the characters behave in a situation or event, so that readers have a good idea of the characters' personalities. Writers choose words that show readers what they think about the characters.

WRITING TASK

Write a character description of ONE of the people on the bus in the picture below.

- Imagine what the character is like.
- Introduce the character and make them interesting so that readers will want to find out more.
- Your description should give readers a good idea of the character's personality.
- Use descriptive words and phrases to help readers understand what the character is doing, thinking and feeling.
- Choose words that show readers what you think about the character. Think about how your words will make readers feel about the character.

HINTS

- Use the planning time to organise your ideas.
- Stay on the topic: Write a character description of ONE of the people in the picture.
- Write different types of sentences. Make sure your sentences are correct.
- Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.
- Use the time at the end of the task to check and improve your writing.